

East Coast Research Day

Schedule of Presentations

9:30 AM Welcome Everyone, Dr. Kirk Magee

9:35 AM Keynote Speaker Introduction, Dr. Sam Campbell

9:40 – 10:15 AM Keynote Speaker - Dr. Kerstin de Wit

10:15 -10:35 AM - Morning Break

10:35 – 10:45 AM - DIRECTED: Development of Innovative Resources and Education for COVID-Era Training in the Emergency Department. Dr. David Hung

10:45 – 10:55 AM – A scoping review of sepsis management in prehospital and Emergency Department settings: Barriers, facilitators, and strategies to improve care. Dr. Judah Goldstein

10:55 – 11:05 AM – Post-intubation analgesia and sedation for intubated ED patient: Introduction of an education intervention. Dr. Kavish Chandra

11:05 – 11:15 AM – Caregivers' perspectives on the need for a caregiver-targeted knowledge translation intervention for procedural pain management in children: A mixed-methods study. Meredith Otley

11:15 – 11:25 AM – An analysis of the impact of Hurricane Fiona on Prince Edward Island Emergency Departments. Dr. Rhiannan Pinnell

11:25 – 11:35 AM – Canadian emergency physician attitudes toward somatic symptom and related disorders. Jesse Wells

11:35 - 11:45 AM – Knowledge, attitudes, and practice in determining medical fitness of patients to operate motor vehicles: A cross-sectional survey of Atlantic Canadian emergency physicians. Dr. Aaron Sibley

11:45 – 11:55 AM – Paramedic sepsis identification and impact on time to antibiotic treatment: A retrospective chart review. Jennifer Greene

11:55 AM - 1:30 PM – Lunch Break

East Coast Research Day

1:30 – 1:40 PM – Welcome Back Everyone, Dr. Sam Campbell

1:40 – 1:50 PM – Identifying factors that influence how pediatric patients or caregivers decide to present to an Emergency Department: A scoping review. Emily Devereaux

1:50 – 2:00 PM – Effectiveness of a web-based training intervention in teaching emergency physicians first-trimester point-of-care ultrasound image interpretation. Dr. Connie LeBlanc

2:00 – 2:10 PM – Optimizing the role of the clinical pharmacist in the Emergency Department: A qualitative analysis of health care professionals' perspectives.
Mollie MacLean

2:10 – 2:20 PM – Paramedics providing POCUS for difficult intravenous access in the Emergency Department. Ryan Fitzpatrick

2:20 - 2:30 PM – Evidence-informed destructive ring removal in urgent care settings: Rationale to consider the use of registered medical devices for ring removal for improved patient safety. Candis Lepage

2:30 – 2:40 PM - Examining equity, diversity and inclusion in the residency selection process: A scoping review. Dr. Connie LeBlanc

2:40 – 2:50 PM - Judge Deliberation

2:50 PM - Research Award Presentations